

BETTY LOU SPOONS

Betty Malone, age 14

On a trip out West my mother found a Betty Lou spoon which she immediately bought for me since it was my name.

We found out that there were some in our area since it was a radio program over a Chicago station.

I was so pleased with the spoon and of the idea of having spoons with my own name, so we began to search for them in antique shops. We started out to get a dozen — today have seventeen. We hope to find another one so I can have a dozen and have a half-dozen for my sister Bonnie.

I also collect Trade or Advertising spoons. I have several duplicates and would like to exchange them for ones I do not have. I live in Ft. Branch, Indiana but write to me in care of SILVER-RAMA. Betty Malone.
