

COLLECTORS: DAVE, CINDY AND JULIE LAMBERT

Julie Lambert and her spoon collection.

Julie writes to us. She says, "I'm in the seventh grade and I'm twelve years old. I go to Leslie Junior High School in Salem, Oregon. I've been collecting spoons since about 1967 and I have 38 spoons. I prefer the smaller ones but I like almost any kind. I've gotten most of my spoons from antique shows.

"Last year my brother made me a spoon rack at school. His name is Dave and he's in the tenth grade. He's sixteen years old and goes to South Salem High School. He collects old campaign buttons and glass toy candy containers.

"My sister's name is Cindy and she goes to the same school I do. She's in the ninth grade and she's fifteen years old. She collects pin cushion doll heads."

For a number of years both Julie and Cindy have been helping Mrs. Conklin with her Portland and Seattle shows and are delightful young people.
