

KAREN OGLE, SPOON COLLECTOR

Karen Ogle, age nine, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Ogle of Berkeley Heights, New Jersey. Karen's aunt, Mrs. Don Ogle, started Karen's collection by sending a spoon from Tokyo. The Don Ogles were living in Hong Kong at the time. Other members of the family and friends have added to the collection.

Karen's daddy, a producer for ABC-TV news, has brought spoons from some of the places he has been — one from Hawaii shows a hula dancer — the latest and perhaps her favorite, he brought from Mexico at the time of the solar eclipse. It is of Mexican silver with an intricate Aztec design in the bowl.

A Charley McCarthy spoon belonged to Karen's mother when she was a little girl. This collection has been fun for the whole family. Karen's sister, Kathy, (pictured in June 1969 Silver-Rama) also has a spoon collection and the girls have enjoyed adding to them together.
