

LINDA SEANEY, ANIMAL SPOON COLLECTOR

Linda Seaney is twelve years old and she writes to us:

"I live in a little town in New York — Newfield. We have quite a few animals, including a donkey, horse, dog, cats and pigs. I guess that's the reason I like animal spoons. I like animals!

The first spoon I got was a Christmas present. Since then I've collected thirteen more. Among others I have donkey, bear, chicken and dolphin spoons. I've also collected a few souvenir spoons from places we've visited. Maybe I can get some more on our trip to the West Coast this summer."

(Ed. note: Linda, as soon as I can make room in the magazine I will have a story on my animal spoon collection which I'll do for you!)
